

Bishop Nienstedt to lead penitential devotion at Way of the Cross shrine in New Ulm

On Good Friday, April 6, 2007, at 3:00 p.m. at the Way of the Cross in New Ulm, the Most Rev. John C. Nienstedt will lead a public prayer and meditation on the fourteen Stations of the Cross walking along the pathway marked by lifelike images portrayed in statuary that retell the story of Christ's trial, crucifixion, and death.

For those unable to attend at 3:00 p.m., the local Knights of Columbus will hold prayer services that day with Stations prayed at 1:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m., and 4:00 p.m. Prayer books will be provided and people of all faiths are invited.

The Way of the Cross is a shrine of the Diocese of New Ulm located on 5th North Street, directly above the New Ulm Medical Center. The 14 stations, grotto, and Lady of Sorrows Chapel were created by the Sisters of the Order of the Poor Hand Maids of Jesus Christ. The seasonal maintenance of the shrine and fundraising for any restoration efforts is a joint project of the local Knights of Columbus Council 1076, a fraternal insurance organization, and the diocesan Way of the Cross Committee.

In case of inclement weather, please listen to KNUJ 860 AM Radio or call Ken Stadick, (507) 354-2746.
