

NUACS Lenten service project

New Ulm - Holy Trinity
Middle School students, faculty, and staff donated money during lent for the New Ulm Food Shelf. A total of $2844.98 worth of groceries were donated this year. This is more than a Lenten project of giving to those in need. The students also learn lessons in economics while shopping for a good value. The student shoppers spent $2020.70 to purchase groceries and saved $824.28 in coupons and discounts. The remaining cash was donated to the New Ulm Food Shelf. This is the eighteenth year of this Lenten Service Project with a cumulative total of $43,298.34.
