Council of Catholic Women Recognition Sunday

Sunday, October 8, 2006 is Council of Catholic Women Recognition Sunday in the Diocese of New Ulm. This day is set aside to acknowledge the accomplishments of the Council of Catholic Women (CCW) and to promote CCW. This day emphasizes the great work of the Council both in the diocese and nationally, and commemorates those who have helped the Council grow.

CCW Recognition Sunday is the day to highlight the activities and leadership carried out by Catholic women. All parishes are encouraged to celebrate on October 8 and to encourage, support, and empower the work of the Council of Catholic Women.

The New Ulm Diocesan Council of Catholic Women is a federation of parish women's organizations within the New Ulm diocese. The parish affiliates are supported by the structure of the National Council of Catholic Women that represents millions of women across the country. The Council exists to support, empower, and educate members in spirituality, leadership, and service. To learn more about visit www.nudccw.org
