

Funeral Mass for

*No eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the heart of man conceived,
what God has prepared
for those who Love him.*

- 1 Corinthians 2:9

BEFORE THE LITURGY

While waiting for the funeral to begin, this is an opportunity to pray for our loved one who has died, and to pray for all of those who mourn. One could pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, or the prayers provided below.

PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD AND FOR MOURNERS

*In your hands, O Lord,
we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them
with your tender love;
deliver them now from every evil
and bid them eternal rest.*

*The old order has passed away:
welcome them into paradise,
where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain,
but fullness of peace and joy
with your Son and the Holy Spirit
forever and ever. Amen.*

*Lord, God of all creation
we bless and thank you for your tender care.
Receive this life you created in love
and comfort your faithful people
in their time of loss
with the assurance of your unfailing mercy.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

*O Lord,
whose ways are beyond understanding,
listen to the prayers of your faithful people:
that those weighed down by grief at the loss of their loved one, may find reassurance
in your infinite goodness.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

*God, our creator and redeemer,
by your power Christ conquered death
and returned to you in glory.*

*May all your people, especially our loved one,
who we remember today,
who has gone before us in faith,
share His victory
and enjoy the vision of your glory for ever,
where Christ lives and reigns with you in the unity of Holy Spirit, one God,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

*Compassionate God,
soothe the hearts of those who mourn,
and grant that through the prayers of Mary,
who grieved by the Cross of her Son,
you may enlighten their faith,
give hope to their hearts,
and peace to their lives.*

*Lord,
grant mercy to all the members of this family
and comfort them with the hope that one day all the faithful
will live with you,
with your Son Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit,
forever and ever. Amen.*

THE FUNERAL MASS

We come together in this church today "... to give praise and thanks to God for Christ's victory over sin and death, to commend our loved one to God's tender mercy and compassion, and to seek strength in the proclamation of the paschal mystery [the gift of salvation through Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection]. Through the Holy Spirit the community is joined together in faith as one Body in Christ to reaffirm in sign and symbol, word and gesture that each believer through baptism shares in Christ's death and resurrection and looks to the day when all the elect will be raised up and united in the kingdom of light and peace."

INTRODUCTORY RITES

All stand, and face the entrance to the church.

“The minister sprinkles the coffin with holy water in remembrance of the deceased person’s initiation and first acceptance into the community of faith. A white funeral pall, a reminder of the garment given at baptism, and therefore signifying life in Christ, is placed on the coffin.”

"Through the homily members of the family and community should receive consolation and strength to face the death of one of their members with a hope nourished by the saving word of God."

The community with the priest offers to the Father the sacrifice of the New Covenant...In partaking of the body of Christ, all are given a foretaste of eternal life in Christ and are united with Christ, with each other, and with all the faithful, living and dead."

All stand as the priest says:

Presider: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the almighty Father.

GUIDELINES FOR RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

For Catholics

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should be actively living their Catholic faith, should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin or is not practicing their Catholic faith is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession.

For our fellow Christians

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. Because Catholics believe that the Eucharist is truly the Body and Blood of Jesus, and believe that receiving Holy Communion means that we are in full communion with everything that the Catholic Church teaches, the reception of Holy Communion is limited to those who share our Catholic faith.

For non-Christians

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

For those not receiving Holy Communion

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to make a spiritual communion, that is, to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

HOLY COMMUNION

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

All stand.

Presider: Let us pray...

All respond: Amen

FINAL COMMENDATION

“The final commendation is a final farewell by the members of the community, an act of respect for one of their members, who they entrust to the tender and merciful embrace of God. This act of last farewell also acknowledges the reality of separation and affirms that the community and the deceased, baptized into the one Body, share the same destiny, resurrection on the last day. On that day the one Shepherd will call each by name and gather the faithful together in the new and eternal Jerusalem.”

INVITATION TO PRAYER

SILENCE

“The rite begins with the presider’s opening words and a few moments of silent prayer...The pause for silence allows the bereaved and all present to relate their own feelings of loss and grief to the mystery of Christian hope in God’s abundant mercy and his promise of eternal life.”

SONG OF FAREWELL

PRAYER OF COMMENDATION

Presider: ...We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All respond: Amen
